CARE OF THE FEEBLE MINDED

Twenty Thousand Dollars May be Appropriated for Their Benefit-Improvements in Small Cities.

The indiciary committee of the house to which was referred house joint reso utlon No. 6, by Representative Davis of Uintah county yesterday reported monding that it be passed. The resolution provides for an amendment to the constitution of the state permitting cities of the third class and towns to raise, by taxation, sufficient means to establish water systems, etc., and this may not be done under the present rate of taxation permitted to cities of the classes named. If the amendment goes into effect, these cities will be able to levy an assessment of 8 per cent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property, for the purposes named, and this, in the estimation of the author of the resolution, will provide sufficient revenue to enable the towns to protect the health of their inhabitants by establishing and main taining water systems

Saffers Fredhar Ackillent Value and Fredhard Ackillent Value and Fredhard Ackillent Fredh not sufficient to establish and main tain a water system. Take the city of Vernal, for instance. There we have Vernal, for instance. There we have 13 miles of paved sidewalks, 15 or more business blocks, the center within a radius of five miles of a population of 10,000 people, but the town has no water system. The supply of water is reinched; rincipally from wells and ditches, his in many cases is not only detri-nental to health, but affords the cit o means for fire protection. In addi-on, a sewer system should and might e maintained in towns of the size of ernal, and if the amount of the levy themselves are willing to be taxed for the purpose, and I hope the joint reso-ution providing for the increase will

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.

Representative Morris of Washington Representative Morris of Washington called up house joint memorial No. 3, which asks Congress to appropriate 1,000,000 acres of land to the State of Utah, from the proceeds of the sale of which the Indian war veterans might be reimbursed for their labors and hardships. The memorial was passed by the house. It is as follows:

Your memorialists, the governor and legislature of the State of Utah, respectfully memorialize your honorable body:

body:

Whereas, from the year 1850 up to and including the year 1879, there were Indian wars, in which a great number of the citizens of Utah were compelled to serve under military discipline for the protection of their homes and property and for the preservation of the public property in this state (then territory), furnishing their own arms, ammunition, horses and supplies; and ritory), furnishing their own arms, ammunition, horses and supplies; and Whereas, Congress has passed a law granting pensions to those who served in the Indian wars of Utah between the years 1850 and 1853, but has made no provision for the relief of those serving in the said Indian wars since 1853;

Whereas, the records of the excedi-tions are incomplete and do not fill all the requirements made by Congress for the approval of the same in order sions may be granted under hem; and.

Whereas, more than half of the old veterans have now passed away and those remaining are quite advanced in years (numbering about 1,500 now allys).

alive). Therefore, and for the immediate use and benefit of those who are yet living and who are not receiving pensions. Resolved, That your memorialists respectfully request that the Congress of the United States of America grant to the State of Utah of the government lands in the State of Utah, one million neres, the same to be disposed of by the state board of land commissioners of the State of Utah under the laws of Utah governing the sale and disposition of public lands in the manner as provided by the laws of the State of Utah, vided by the laws of the State of Utah, and the proceeds thereof to be applied as remuneration for services rendered n Indian wars to veterans, their widows now living, the same to be in lieu of all further pensions other than those granted and those for which applica-tions have been filed. In consideration of granting this request the State of Utah hereby relinquishes all rights and claims for pensions to Indian was yet.

claims for pensions to Indian verans other than those already and those for which applications have been filed.

The governor of the State of Utah is hereby authorized to accept this ap-propriation in behalf of the Indian war

Resolved, further That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Sena-tors Smoot and Sutherland and Repre-sentative Howell, for presentation to their respective however.

CARE OF FEEBLE MINDED.

The house yesterday took up as a special order S. B. 98, by the committee on mental hospital. The measure appropriates the sum of $20,000 for the care of feeble minded and non-insane epilepties residing within the state. The bill originally provided for $30,000 for the purpose, and was tabled by the house, It was agreed that $20,000 might be appropriated for the purpose, and on this understanding the measure was made a special order for yesterday afterneon and it was taken from the table n and it was taken from the table

Representative McCracken, by re-quest introduced a measure amending hapter 55 of the Compiled Laws of Utah by adding a new section, as follows: "It shall be unlawful for any person
